Eckstein Memorial Library Presents

Summer Library Programs and Summer Reading Program 2023

"If you want your children to be intelligent, read them fairy tales. If you want them to be more intelligent, read them more fairy tales."

– Albert Einstein

Summer Reading Programs at the Eckstein Memorial Library

Summer Reading Program 1 is through the Grant County Fair. They are offering all children in grades 1st to 8th grade the opportunity to earn a voucher for a free nacho basket and drink if they read 40 hours between June 1st through July 31st.

Summer Reading Program 2 is offered by the Eckstein Memorial Library from June 1st until July 31st. Each participant will be placed in a reading level based on their age, which will then determine how many books they need to read to receive prizes.

Please see Marie McGinnis or Patti Wood at the Eckstein Memorial Library for more details to enroll in each program.

Hoo's Woods Raptor Center

A Raptor Experience

Our programs are filled with age-appropriate information that is both educational, meaningful and fun.

Warning: The Raptors that will be shown in this program will not tolerate a lot of noise and sudden movements. It is recommended that children under age 6 not attend this program **
